Officers of Bengal, Bombay and Madras Regiments - 1873

http://members.ozemail.com.au/~clday/harts101.htm

This page is part of the Family History in India website, which is designed to help people trace their British and European ancestry in colonial India. This particular web page is a list of officers of the 101st to 108th Regiments of Foot, which were raised in Bengal, Bombay and Madras from former HEIC Army units. The details were extracted from Hart's Army List of 1873 by Jill Grey.

The names are in rank order, by regiment. To find a name, either scroll through the list or use the Find in Page button of your browser. Alternatively, you may want to view the index to all 12,000 names on the Family History in India website, using Surname Helper. Go to Surname Search for a single surname, or go to Full Index for the full list.

Go to Lineage of 101st-109th Foot
Go to Other Regimental Histories

Ranks are followed by a colon and the date on which that officer was granted that rank. If an asterisk appears next to an officer's name, then there is more information about him in Hart's Army List. You may send an email to Jill Grey and request that she sends you the information, but you must let her know in which regiment the man served, and what his rank was in 1873.

The Cadet papers are under reference IOR/L/MIL/9/xxx at the O.I.O. Collection at the British Library in London and cover the period from c.1789 until towards the end of the 19th century. This index only covers the period 1789 to 1859. When you look-up a name you will find the OIOC ref number and LDS Family History Centre film number, you can then go to your nearest LDS Family History Centre and order this film for viewing in that centre. This is much more convienient than going all the way to London from say Alberta.
